Remarks

Big bay views surround you from this exquisitely updated waterfront estate. Welcome to 324 Bayshore Drive, a property of nearly half an acre set on a large, open stretch of the bay with easy access to the Intracoastal Waterway. Even more spectacular is the beautiful water and natural beauty of Midnight Pass which is just to the north of this property and sandbar relaxation just a short boat ride away. This home features all the right spaces and updates- it features a smartly renovated main house comprised of three bedrooms, three and a half bathrooms and spacious office, as well as separate guest suite with full bathroom. From the moment you approach this property you can tell something is different about it. The large front yard features a wraparound drive with tasteful landscaping and as you approach the front door you are transported into true relaxation as you enter over a pool with footbridge to the front door. The immediate thing you will notice are unobstructed beautiful views, high ceilings and stunning architecture. As you take in the 36x36 tile updated flooring you'll visit the kitchen and great room. The kitchen features upscale appliances from SubZero, Miele and Thermador, as well as sleek European style cabinetry. The main living space opens onto a screened, elevated
